

Alberta

Freedom To Create. Spirit To Achieve.

Something For Everyone

All types of art all over Alberta in three wildly creative days.

Become part of the experience by planning an event in your own community, showcasing your unique talents and celebrating the things that make us distinctly Albertan.

Writers Writing Home:

a workshop by Marty Chan &

Jessica Kluthe

Sept. 30, 2011

7:00 - 9:00 pm

Morinville Cultural Centre

9502 - 100 Ave

Authors Marty Chan and Jessica Kluthe break down the creative writing process into simple steps that anyone can follow. They offer practical tips and easy-to-apply ideas that can help you kick-start your novel, memoir or script. Marty and Jessica will discuss the role of place in creative writing, a theme that has influenced each of their work. Join these writers in an interactive workshop as they visit their hometown of Morinville, Alberta.

Marty Chan is a young adult author, playwright and humorist. His plays and television shows have been produced around the world. His weekly radio series ran on CBC Radio for six years. He is currently the writer in residence at the Edmonton Public Library. For more information, please visit www.martychan.com

Jessica Kluthe is a non-fiction writer and writing instructor. With her sight set on a literary career, she pursued a BA degree in English and Creative Writing and then an MFA degree in Writing. Her stories have been published in Canadian literary magazines, and she is putting the final touches on her book about a midwife at the turn-of-the-century in Calabria, Italy.
